Club Women's Head Gives Her Recipe For Wheatless Biscuit

MRS. JOSHUA EVANS COWLES, president of the three million clubwomen of America, who composed the General Federation of Women's clubs, gave a reception in her Los Angeles home, and after lunch, in honor of Mrs. John D. Brown, chairman of the El Paso, and a member of the Federation Board, and served wheatless biscuits. This little president general of the army of club women has been advocating food conservation since the first war was declared by food administration Herbert Hoover, and has requested every clubwoman to register and do her all in helping with the food war. When these delicious wheatless biscuits were served, there was a clamor for the recipe, and here it is:

"Take the dry ingredients and mix them in the butter, which should be melted and sugar and salt. Beat well to a dough and knead with the hands. Roll out at once and divide into four equal squares. Bake in a rather slow oven until a light brown.

"Corn meal is a substitute for white flour in this recipe, but a little wheat or rice flour is needed to prevent sticking. Should the biscuits seem too coarse it may be passed through the meat chopper using the peanut cutter."

Mrs. W. N. Fane, worthy matron of El Paso chapter, O. E. S., was hostess, Friday afternoon, to the members of the Canadian club, at her home on Montana street. Sociability was enjoyed as the guests were on comfort beds for the night. The afternoon features have been relegated to the background for the more pressing patriotic work, and the summer meetings are being employed in assisting the El Paso Comfort Bag society in their contributions. The work has been done in various groups. The El Paso club is formed from women of the Canadian club, who have a delightful informal time at these afternoon meetings. Mrs. J. W. Johnson has asked for next week a meeting and entertainment at her home, 1123 Nevada street.

The City Federation of Women will meet on Tuesday evening, Monday afternoon, at 2 o'clock in the chamber of commerce building. The subject of home gardening will be presented in a paper, prepared by Miss Grace Logan, and read by Mrs. E. D. Scott. The afternoon features will be generally talked over by the audience. Throughout the summer, when most clubs are vacationing, this society is holding interest in its consideration of timely topics at their informal meetings.

The women of the Asbury M. E. church, who will hold a business meeting on Thursday, August 2, at 8 o'clock, in the church, will be in charge. In the absence of the president, Mrs. J. W. Johnson, who leaves that day for Del Rio to spend a month with her brother and family, the H. W. Sherida.
